

The Centre for Muslim-Christian Studies

Hilary 2018 Research Seminars

A series of seminars designed to give scholars and graduate students a chance to present their in-progress research

Tuesdays, 2.30 – 4.00pm

23rd January

Jonathan Smith
PhD candidate
University of Leeds

Christian-Muslim relations in Jordan:
local responses to the Syrian refugee crisis

6th February

Rivka Hyland
MPhil candidate
University College, Oxford

Theodore Abū Qurrah's Treatise on the Veneration of the Holy Icons: the implications of shared religious space between Muslims and Christians in ninth-century Edessa

20th February

Doaa Baumi
PhD candidate
University of Birmingham

Scriptural Reasoning's Challenge to Muslims

6th March

Dr Richard McCallum
Senior Fellow
Centre for Muslim-Christian Studies, Oxford

Signs of Faith: visible identity markers in contemporary Islam and Christianity

All welcome!

Light refreshments are available 30 minutes before the seminar begins
CMCS, The Song School, 109A Iffley Rd, Oxford, OX4 1EH

www.cmcsoxford.org.uk Email: office@cmcsoxford.org.uk Tel: 01865 613440